

Terms & Conditions 2020

The Causeway Coast Golf Tournament 2020 will be played at Royal Portrush, Ballycastle, Castlerock and Ballyliffin Golf Clubs.

The Tournament will be played over five days from Monday 1st to Friday 5th June. Each player will play on four of the five days with a rest day.

Handicaps/Restrictions

- The event is open to gentlemen amateur players over 18 years of age with a handicap of 20 or less. Each Player must carry a handicap certificate on each day of the Tournament. A current handicap certificate must be submitted with the players registration.
- All Players must be members of Golf Clubs recognised and affiliated to their country's governing body and must have an official club handicap. In accordance with 2008-2011 CONGU Handicapping Scheme all scores in this competition must be returned to the home club by the player concerned – see Clause 8.12. The Handicap Committee of the home club will consider them in accordance with Clause 23 either as part of the Annual Review or, if appropriate, for an immediate cut under Clause 23B – General Play Adjustment.
- The Tournament Committee reserves the right to revise any players handicap before or during the Tournament.

Format

- The overall competition is run on Stableford format. Concurrently with the main Tournament a subsidiary competition is run each day at each course with trophies and prizes for the best scores returned.
